Grand Jury Won't Eye WTSU

Students enjoy the spaciousness of the new Cornette Library on the West Texas State University campus. The library will be dedicated at 2 p.m. Saturday in ceremonies. Story on page 2.

Randall County grand jurors closed the books again Monday on an investigation of fiscal activities at West Texas State University.

It was the second time in a two-year period that a grand jury has closed an investigation into the university's financial affairs with little comment.

In a statement signed by Horace Scott, grand jury foreman, the jurors devoted one paragraph of a two-paragraph report to the WTSU investigation.

"This Grand Jury can find no reason for any further investigation of minor problems at West Texas State University," the statement reads. "It further feels that the problems presented to earlier grand juries are those that should be solved by the administration, and not by grand juries."

The surprise statement was delivered to Dist. Judge E.E. "Gene" Jordan late Monday following a six-hour grand jury session. The statement was not presented orally.

The grand jury which met prior to the empaneling of the current jury called on future grand juries to continue investigations into the Amarillo Police Department and WTSU financial affairs.

The grand jury also devoted a paragraph of its statement to the Amarillo Police Department:

"This Grand Jury has looked into the problems of police protection in South Amarillo and found that adequate steps have been taken to enlarge the force. It further records pride in the Amarillo Police Department and its new rookie schools for enlarging the police force."

The previous grand jury had conducted its own investigation into police protection for South Amarillo and issued a scathing report which cited low morale and few personnel as problems facing the APD.

The report called for enlarging police protection of South Amarillo.

Dist. Atty. George Dowlen said several members of the grand jury conducted an individual investigation into both the WTSU and Amarillo police problems. He said it

WT Veep Hiring, Resignation Due

The hiring of a new financial vice president and the resignation of another vice president will be among main items to be discussed Saturday by West Texas State University's board of regents.

Regents meet at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in the university activities center.

Rental and purchase of new computer equipment for the university will also be a main item on the agenda.

Regents are expected to approve hiring of a new vice president for financial affairs during the meeting. Several candidates for the position have visited the campus and a university committee has reviewed applications for the position.

The News learned several weeks ago and announced at that time that Herma Miller, assistant director of the Texas Legislative Budget Board, has been named as successor to Virgil Henson, current financial vice president.

Another WTSU vice president has announced his plans to resign his position to return to a teaching position on the faculty at WTSU. His action will be considered by the board.

Rental of a new computer system, which is expected to quadruple the capacity of the computer center, will be passed on by the board. Rental fee for the system is $160,000 annually. Purchase of almost $300,000 in related equipment will also be considered by regents.

Other items due regent consideration include:

*approval of a new tenure and academic freedom policy for university professors. Professors approved the policy by a vote recently after a committee recommended changes in the old policy.

*approval of a change in the general education requirements for all university degree-seekers. A committee also recommended these changes.

*approval of allocation of $11,500 for construction of a livestock arena at the university horse center.

*approval of plans and expenditures for renovation of the old science building for use by the school of agriculture.

The regents will also participate Saturday afternoon in dedication ceremonies for the new Cornette Library on campus.

Ceremonies begin at 2 p.m. at the library. State Sen. Max Sherman will be keynote speaker.

Kelly Cox Wins Crown As 'Miss'

Kelly Cox, 15, a brown-eyed, blonde-haired Canyon High School sophomore was crowned as 1974 Miss Canyon Saturday night.

Miss Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Cox of Canyon, was chosen by judges during the annual Miss Canyon Contest sponsored by the Canyon Study Club. She was chosen over 41 other candidates for the honor.

First runner-up is Miss Carol Coleman, 17, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Coleman and second runner-up is Miss Tonya Hunter.

Miss Cox will travel to Shamrock this weekend to compete for the crown of Miss Irish Rose in that city's St. Patrick's Day celebration.

As Miss Canyon, Miss Cox received two $25 savings bonds from Canyon First National and West Texas State banks.

Enthusiastic Directors Outline Promotion To Attract Residents

An enthusiastic Canyon Chamber of Commerce board of directors outlined a three-pronged promotional program Monday night they hope will urge local residents to shop in Canyon and will urge newcomers to the Panhandle to live in Canyon.

Directors met in special session to discuss approaches to the problem of seeking new residents and urging current residents to purchase their goods from local merchants.

Jim Brown and John Childs were appointed by directors to meet with officials from an Amarillo advertising agency to map out a complete promotional program to accomplish both goals.

Financing for the promotional program was discussed only briefly.

Childs and Brown will ask the ad agency to come up with a basic campaign to utilize television, radio and newspaper advertising to attract newcomers to reside in Canyon.

An excellent school system, small town atmosphere and availability of good housing were listed as major Canyon assets which could be trumpeted to seek new residents.

Childs said the promotional campaign could cost as much as $5000.

The basic theme of the campaign will be the assets of the city for newcomers.

Brown noted that building is booming in residential areas of Canyon and housing is available in the medium- to high-priced range.

Directors will also work out a promotional effort to urge local residents to spend their purchasing money with local merchants. Directors noted that Canyon sales tax returns indicate the city is not getting the support of local residents, who purchase many items in Amarillo.

Another campaign briefly outlined by directors was an effort to attract new businesses to

County Does Slow Burn Over Amarillo Fire Fee

Randall County commissioners, doing a slow burn for several months over the City of Amarillo's $845 charge for fighting county fires, gave a prelude Monday of the kind of indignation they'll take with them in discussions with city officials over the rate.

A brief soliloquy by Commissioner Jim Fletcher was a sequel to commissioners' March 4 discussion of the fire charges and the need for Randall County to be reimbursed for about $16,000 worth of computer information it feeds Amarillo at no charge.

Fletcher and Commissioner John Fulgenzi have been appointed to meet with a similar committee from the Amarillo City Commission to discuss the fire charges and the charge which the county should make to supply the computer information.

County Commissioner Paul Lindsey declared the $845 which Amarillo charges for each alarm city fire trucks answer in the rural county area intolerable.

Commissioners received a bill from the city Monday for $3380 for fire fighting during the month of February.

"One call was on Feb. 13," Fletcher said. "It was a false alarm at Affiliated Grocers on South Washington Street. They (Amarillo fire units) were there 24 minutes. It cost our taxpayers $845 for a false alarm."

Fletcher said another $845 was charged for a grass fire two miles south of Amarillo. Another $845 was charged for fighting a house fire.

"I don't know how the taxpayers can afford this expenditure the second time around," Fletcher said, noting that Randall County taxpayers living inside the Amarillo city limits have already paid taxes to purchase the fire fighting equipment. In essence, they are taxed twice for the equipment, he said.

"For less than three hours work (during the month) they're charging us $3380," Lindsey said. "Somehow something's out of line when they work less than three hours and charge us $3380 for three hours."

"We have to do something with this. We have to meet our obligation to the public some other way. It's too great an expense for what we're receiving."

In other business, Dist. Atty.

City Waits For Affidavit To Validate Signatures

City Clerk Bob Moore spent the day Tuesday validating names attached to a petition calling for an election on construction of a city hall complex, but officials were still waiting Wednesday for an affidavit required by law before the petition can be considered by commissioners.

Moore, who checked each name on the petition with voter registration lists, said 236 names were valid on the petition out of a total of 317 names attached. The names invalidated were either listed without an address or the persons signing were not registered voters.

City Manager George Louder said he had informed petitioner spokesman Mrs. Mary Parker that the petitioners need to submit an affidavit before the petitions can be turned over to commissioners.

The affidavit must bear the signatures of at least five registered voters to certify that the signatures on the petitions are valid.

When the affidavit is submitted by petitioners, the city has five days to transmit the petitions to city commissioners. Commissioners then have 10 days to act on the petition.

Louder said when the affidavit is received, the petitions will be hand carried to each city commissioner for perusal.

He said he does not expect a special commission session to be called this week to examine the petitions. Commissioners meet in regular session at 7 p.m. Monday and Louder said he anticipates the petitions will be considered as a part of the regular agenda.

The petitions were turned over to city hall last Friday by Mrs. Parker and several other local residents, including Mrs. C.S.

Grant Application Due On WT-City Water Plan

The first step toward completion of a project which would provide a million gallons of water per day for irrigation of the West Texas State University Nance Ranch will be taken this week when city officials begin a tedious grant funding process.

City Manager George Louder

said the city has finally received application material from the federal Environmental Protection Agency for a grant which would fund construction of a pipeline from the city's sewer plant to the Nance Ranch.

Estimated cost of the project is between $300,000 and $400,000, Louder said, and the grant application will seek funding for those costs.

WTSU and city officials have discussed the possibility of using city sewer plant effluent for irrigation purposes for nearly a year in informal sessions.

Louder said the information he will submit this week with the application will allow EPA officials to determine whether the project can be funded under the current EPA funding priority system.

So, he stressed, there is no guarantee that the city can even receive consideration for a grant from the EPA for the project.

Louder said if the EPA determines it can fund the program, federal funds would probably cover about 75 per cent of the cost of the construction. The city, he said, has already informed WTSU officials the city will not pay the additional 25 per cent.

If funding is not available through the EPA, Louder said federal funding could be out of the question. He said he knows of no other federal agency with funds for such a project. Private sources would be a primary source of funding, he indicated.

Louder said he hopes to hear from the EPA in about two months on whether or not the proposal fits into the agency's

Grand Jury Action Eyed On Beating

Randall County officials said this week they may ask the grand jury to investigate an incident Friday night which involved sheriff's deputies and a West Texas State University football player.

Sheriff Cliff Longest indicated he had discussed the possibility of a grand jury investigation into the altercation between Mike Kotrous, a 6-3, 226-pound senior offensive tackle for the Buffaloes, and Deputies Reedy McDonald and Roger Wininger. Dowlen also indicated he may present the case to the grand jury for investigation.

Kotrous told the News he was

Wayne Pitt Wins All-district Honor

Wayne Pitt, a 5-10 senior, was named this week to the All-District basketball team, an honor he's captured for two consecutive years.

Pitt, standout for the district champion Canyon Eagles, was leading scorer in the district last season.

Two Eagles were named to the all-district second team. They are Andy Cooper and Ed Lair. And two Eagles, Dennis Collier and Lynn Wright were named to honorable mention positions on the team.

Pitt shares first team honors with one Dumas player, one Perryton player, one Muleshoe player and one Levelland player.

Five of the 14 all-district selections are from the winning Eagles.

Wright was the only non-senior student selected for the team from CHS. He is a junior.

"I think Wayne was the best player in the district," Coach B. B. Kendrick said. "He was the leading scorer in the district for the last two years."

Pitt also made the all-south plains team sponsored by the Lubbock newspaper.

He is a candidate for all-state honors.

In district play, Pitt averaged 26 points per game. For the season, he averaged 20 points per game.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

by Troy Martin

Last week the rumor was going around the campus that Gov. Dolph Briscoe had issued an executive directive to the presidents of all state supported institutions of higher learning that streaking would be stopped.

I called the governor's office and the office of WTSU President Lloyd Watkins. "Nothing to it," came from both sources.

The governor's press aide went further. He said that the governor was out of the capitol and that not in the foreseeable future would he even have any comment to make on streaking.

A hapless University of Texas freshman was nailed by the Secret Service after he streaked Saturday in front of Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and Walter Cronkite.

Mrs. Johnson was making the Dewitt Reddick communications award to Cronkite on behalf of the university board of regents of which she is a member.

The culprit was lodged in Austin jail charged with disorderly conduct. I wouldn't be surprised if Lady Bird comes to his rescue.

Where Lyndon was tough and sometimes ruthless, Lady Bird is tender hearted especially where youngsters are concerned. I'll always have a picture of her as first lady holding my youngest son Tim's hand in both hers and talking to him earnestly for fully five minutes.

I had lunch with Tommy Thompson, former editor and columnist for The Amarillo Globe Times.

I disagreed with Tommy a lot, especially in the early 1960s when he tried to call the shots for Randall County in his Turnstile column. Nothing was ever personal on my part.

Tommy often wrote derogatory things about people he had to face on the street the next day. That takes guts.

I've never felt any personal antagonism toward either Ben Ezzell of Canadian or H.M. Baggarly of Tulia either. I disagree largely with their philosophies.

I always felt that Thompson and Ezzell both were good newspapermen with a deep interest in reporting the happenings in the area they served.

Atkinson, Topeka & Santa Fe might well look to its public relations in Canyon.

There should be a time limit on how long a train can block a street. Of course, we're happy to be on the east-west line of the Santa Fe but that turn's to anger when you wait at a crossing for 15 minutes and then have to drive a half mile to get across the tracks.

Tuesday afternoon at rush hour a freight kept 15th Street crossing blocked for an hour while motorists fumed and went around.

Is this really necessary? If it is then Santa Fe needs to furnish us with an underpass.

I understand the dog problem is being brought under control. It's just in time because rabies season is already here.

Skunks, notorious carriers of rabies, will be coming into town to snap at flies and bugs around lights in the park and a lot of dogs running loose could lead to a lot of dogs having rabies.

The so called constitutional convention is the biggest waste of money ever foisted onto the people of this state.

Texas is not going to buy a constitution written by the Texas legislature and honeycombed with special interest provisions.

Allowing the legislature to write a constitution is like sending a goat to guard the cabbage patch. The one being prepared now will be voted down as it should be.

Texas needs a constituent assembly to write its new constitution.

Canyon volunteer firemen answered a call about 9 p.m. Monday to the Buffalo Motel here. One room of the motel was damaged by the blaze. Here firemen mount to the roof to extinguish the fire.

Sen. Sherman To Speak At Library Dedication Saturday

West Texas State University's Cornette Library will be dedicated in formal ceremonies beginning at 2 p.m. Saturday on the campus.

State Sen. Max Sherman will be keynote speaker for the dedication of the $3 million structure.

Following the dedication, the library, which opened for student use this semester, will be open for public tours. Refreshments will be served and the university music department will provide chamber music.

The library, named in honor of James and Mary Elizabeth Cornette, is located facing 26th Street on the campus.

The dedication will culminate more than five years of planning and construction for a new library to replace a structure built years ago.

As long ago as seven years, the Committee of '67 recommended the university build a new library facility.

In February 1971, a special committee of the university's regents issued a report also calling for construction of a new library.

In their report, the regents described the old library as "substandard and wholly inadequate to meet the future needs of the university."

Basically believing "the library is the heart of a university," the committee also concluded that the old library collection "is not being fully utilized by either the faculty or the student body, and the use of the collection is definitely impeded by the physical facility."

Preliminary architectural renderings for a new library were presented regents in December 1971. In commenting on the structure, Financial Vice President Virgil Henson predicted that the new library would be sufficient to meet university needs at least until 1979 when a basement expansion could be accomplished.

Bids for construction of the library were let in June 1972, and the contract for both a new library and new science building were given Reid Strickland of Amarillo.

Later that month, university officials took a mock tour of the first floor of the structure in lieu of a formal ground breaking ceremony.

The library construction was funded by student building use fee bonds.

The fully carpeted structure contains seating for 1000 readers, open stacks for 450,000 volumes and 151,000 square feet of floor area. The building is designed for expansion into the basement and for addition of a third floor.

In addition to the more than a million items available for research use in the library's own collection, other items may be obtained for patrons through the library's interlibrary loan department.

The library is a member of the Texas Information Exchange and the Southwest Academic Library Consortium. Since January 1973, it has been an associate member of the Center for Research Libraries in Chicago.

Data On Five, Six-Year-Olds Sought

Canyon school officials are seeking the names and other pertinent information about all children in the Canyon School District who will be either five or six years of age before next Sept. 1.

Vondine McGregor, elementary curriculum coordinator, said parents of children who will begin either kindergarten or first grade next fall should contact the school so the school may give the parents information about meeting times and schedules.

Parents of such children should contact the principals of either Rex Reeves Elementary or Gene Howe Elementary Schools.

Girl Tracksters

Open Season Sat.

The West Texas State girls track team will open its season Saturday, at the Texas Tech Invitational in Lubbock.

Coach Mary Hill has 18 girls out for track. There are three returning seniors.

Jeri Russell is the girl to be watched. Russell is returning for her fourth year with the WT girls track team. Russell qualified for state in 1973 in the high jump, 440, and the mile relay. She has qualified for the nationals all three years at WT.

March 30 the team will attend the meet at Texas Women's University in Denton.

Bid-Taking For Underpass Postponed Until April

Bids for construction of an underpass at 15th Street and U.S. 60 are expected to be let in April rather than this month after a delay to complete an environmental impact statement for a federal agency.

Texas Highway Department officials had hoped the bids would be let later this month for construction of the underpass, which will closely link the Hunsley Hills addition to downtown Canyon.

Don Day, Canyon THD official, said the department now hopes bids can be let April 22 or 23 for the project.

"If there's not some hitch that comes from some source or another, all studies have been completed on the project," he said.

The Environmental Protection Agency, a federal organization, required THD officials several weeks ago to complete a study on the effects of air pollution which might be generated by the highway on the surrounding areas.

That study delayed the bid letting for another month.

Officials now expect the cost of the underpass project to approach the $900,000 figure. Original estimates had placed cost of construction at about $600,000.

But, Day said accurate figures on the project cost are difficult to obtain.

"Right now we just don't know," he said. "With the escalation in prices that have been taking place, it'll be at least 50 per cent more."

Day said highway construction has become a direct casualty of the fuel crisis due to the materials used in construction.

Providing bids are let in April, Day said work on the project could begin within 30 days after the letting date if the contractor is ready to go to work.

City Manager George Louder said all land for the right-of-way of the new underpass has either been purchased or condemnation suits have been filed to obtain the land needed.

Less than an acre of property fronting on U.S. 60 is affected by construction of the underpass.

The underpass will carry traffic on U.S. 60 under 15th Street the grade of which will remain as it is now.

CCC Announces Offerings For 1974-75 Season

A Parisian Chamber Orchestra, a 17-year-old virtuoso violinist and a puppet show "for adults" are the three attractions announced for next season on the Canyon Community Concerts series.

Paul Kuentz Chamber Orchestra of Paris, violinist Stephanie Chase and solo marionettist Daniel Llords will be appearing in concerts next season in Canyon.

Subscription sales for the 1974-1975 CCC season will begin today, a CCC spokesman said. Persons interested in joining the series for next season may attend at no charge the performance of the New York Ballet Ensemble, slated at 8 p.m. today in the Canyon High School auditorium. Subscriptions for next season will be sold at the concert, a spokesman said.

The Paul Kuentz Chamber Orchestra of Paris is an ensemble comprised of 14 prize-winning instrumentalists who have toured extensively throughout Europe, the United States, Canada, Mexico and South Africa under the leadership of their conductor, Paul Kuentz.

During the 1974-75 season, the orchestra's repertoire spans three centuries from 17th Century Vivaldi to 20th Century Tcherpnin and will include a violin and oboe concerto, an oboe concerto and a concerto for viola d'amour by such composers as Bach, Albinoni and others.

Viola d'amour soloist is Monique Frasca-Colombier, who also serves as concert mistress for the ensemble. The artist recently completed a recording of works on the viola d'amour for Deutsche Grammophon.

Stephanie Chase took the concert scene by storm eight years ago when she was named first place winner in the Chicago Symphony Youth Competition at nine years of age and performed as soloist with that orchestra four times.

Born on Oct. 1, 1957, Miss Chase first studied music at two years of age under her mother, a professional violinist. At seven, Miss Chase was a three-time winner on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour, and at eight she was featured on a Peabody Award-winning segment of "Artists Showcase," entitled "Child Prodigy." In 1969, she appeared with the CBS Symphony on three programs, and in the spring of 1971, she was twice a guest on the David Frost Show. The same year, Miss Chase was the subject of a documentary film made by Screen Gems.

The artist has appeared as guest performer with numerous symphonies, and appeared with the American Symphony at the Garden State Festival with Arthur Fiedler conducting, as well as the Pittsburgh Symphony directed by Max Rudolf at the Temple University Festival at Ambler, Pa.

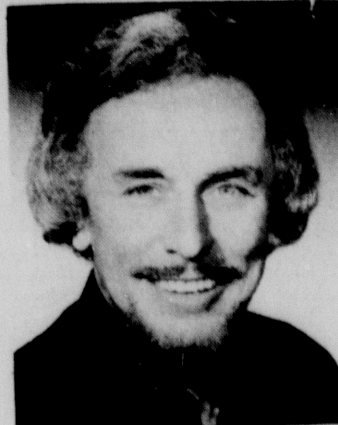

Daniel Llords, along with his cast of lavishly-dressed marionettes, specializes in what has been labelled Concerttheatre, a new art form "as intimate as story telling, as opulent as the New York stage, as electrifying as a Continental ballet troupe."

A former concert pianist, Llords now uses his puppets to interpret "visually great musical masterpieces" including Stravinsky's "Firebird," Mozart's "Eine Klein Nachtmusik," the ballet music from Gounod's "Faust," Mendelssohn's "Fourth Symphony" and Jacques Ibert's "Divertissement." Through Llord's puppeteering expertise, the marionette is said to "take its place on the concert stage as a new stringed instrument."

Llords designed and made his marionettes himself, clothing them lavishly in silks, brocades, laces and embroideries. His puppet troupe includes representatives from the animal world — including elephants, giraffes, lobsters, horses, polar bears and llamas. A specially-constructed stage allows Llords to appear in view of the audience throughout the concert.

The American musician, actor and marionettist has been much in-demand at international festivals all over the world.

Pre-Registration In Progress For Vacation Church School

Far-sighted parents thinking of those long summer days ahead may now pre-register their children for Vacation Church School, an ecumenical program for kids ages 4-11 slated June 11-21 in the city.

The school will conduct morning sessions in member churches, including the First Christian, First Presbyterian, Episcopal, Roman Catholic and Methodist denominations. Pre-registration is now underway at all of these churches, a spokesman said.

Persons interested in serving as teachers or assistants in the summer program are asked to contact its coordinators. They are Marilyn Maynard, First Christian coordinator, Jane Stephens, Presbyterian; Dolores Cole, Episcopal; Karen Sheffy, Methodist, and Marie Kershen and Sister Charles Marie Foster, Catholic.

A general meeting of coordinators and all persons interested in teaching and assisting in the school, is slated from 7:30-8:30 p.m. April 1 in the parlor of the United Methodist Church. Curriculum and class assignments will be discussed at the session, a spokesman said.

In addition to offering sessions for children from pre-school age to sixth grade, the school will have a one-week day camp for fifth and sixth grade students, a spokesman said.

Martian Site Discussed In WT Student's Paper

The projected Martian landing site was the topic of a paper presented by West Texas State University geology graduate student Bruce Shepherd at the 77th annual meeting of the Texas Academy of Science recently.

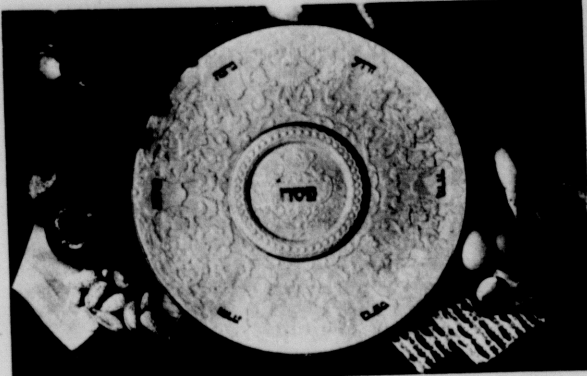

The Academy, assembling at North Texas State University in Denton, heard "Craters of the Acaidialum Planitia Region, Mars," Dr. James Underwood of the WTSU geology department co-authored the paper with Shepherd, and holds a NASA two-year grant to study the landing site.

"Craters" deals with the relative ages of Martian craters, and uses the Mariner IX photographs for computer analysis. The work of the geologists has been carried on at Kilgore Research Center since April, 1973.

The 1976 landing will be in two parts — one on July 4, the other in mid-August. Dr. Underwood's research has helped determine the best sites.

"Craters" is Shepherd's graduate thesis; he will graduate in May or August.

UMBARGER NEWS

Rain Welcome In Umbarger

By REBA RAEF
HELLO, AGAIN, FROM Umbarger. My, wasn't that the nicest rain? We had some fairly large hail, but coming this early in the Spring, it didn't do much damage. We had 2.38 inches of rain, for which we are most grateful.

OUR VOLLEY BALL tournament held last weekend and sponsored by the Umbarger Community Association, was highly successful. There were 12 ladies teams and 12 men's teams entered. The Umbarger men's team, the Jolly Jumpers, took the first place trophy. Team members were Phillip Brandt, Don Howard, Dennis Hartman, Jack Brandt, Andy Wilhelm, Larry Wynn, Milt Suthers, Paul Ferguson, and Vincent C. Meyer. The team was sponsored by the Farmers Elevator of Dawn.

THE SHAW'S CUSTOM Farming team, from Happy, took the first place trophy in the women's division.

THE DILLEYS, UMBARGER'S own ladies team, took the consolation prize. Members of the team were Shirley Skarke, Shirley Payne, Sadie Brandt, Betty Ferguson, Cathy Howard, Gladys Meyer and Diana Brock. They were also sponsored by the Farmers Elevator of Dawn.

WE HAD A good crowd of spectators each day and served a lot of food, each day. Those in charge of the tournament would like to say "Thanks," to those who helped to make it such a success and to those who came and watched the games and had a bite with us. We hope to see you all again next year.

FRANCES GROTEGUT IS now a patient at the Hillhaven Convalescent Center, in Amarillo. We hope that you will soon be able to come home, Frances.

THE UMBARGER VOLUNTEER Fire Department presented three films last Monday evening in the parish hall. The films shown were, The Nature of Fire, First Aid on the Spot and a medley of cartoons. Refreshments were served following the films, by the Fire Department.

THE C.Y.O. WILL have a carnival, in the parish hall, on April 28, so keep that date open. The proceeds will go to the Children's Home, in Panhandle. C.Y.O. members would like to have donations of stuffed toys, crocheted items, or any kind of needlework for their booths. All donations will be greatly appreciated, so let's help the kids out. The carnival will start at 2 p.m. and be over at 5 p.m. There will be refreshments served during the afternoon.

THE UMBARGER C.Y.O. was well represented at the meeting of the Catholic Youth Council, held last Sunday afternoon, in Nazareth. Those who attended from Umbarger were: Elaine Ramaekers, Sharon Ramaekers, Vicki Gerber, Wade Wilhelm, Kevin Raef, Janet Wilhelm, Donna Hartman, Floyd Koch, Linda Hartman, Elbert Liekhus, Jeff Stocker and Delbert Liekhus. Wade Wilhelm is the newly elected vice president of the C.Y.C. and is also the alternate representative to the Pastoral Council.

LAST TUESDAY MORNING, at 9:30, in the parish hall, Mrs. Minnie Copenhaver was honored with a "welcome" coffee. Mrs. Copenhaver is house keeper and cook for Monsignor Schaele. Hosting the coffee were wives of the parish council members and the lady members of the parish council. We are glad to have you in our community and hope you will like it here, Mrs. Copenhaver.

WE HAVE A new little grandson, Joseph Michael Browder. His parents are Michael and Margaret Browder, of Amarillo. His paternal grandmother is Mrs. Mary Dilly, of Amarillo. The great-grandmothers are Mrs. Lloyd Moreman of Amarillo, Mrs. Sylvia Myers, of Van Nuys, California and Mrs. Imogene Browder of San Diego, Calif. We now have eleven grandsons and ten granddaughters, which makes for a "full house," when we all get together. Our congratulations to the proud parents and to the grandparents and great-grandmothers.

yon High, will represent Canyon in the Miss Irish Rose Pageant this weekend in Shamrock.

Short Courses On Sorghum Due Next Week

A two-night short course on grain sorghum production will be held for Randall County farmers next Tuesday and Thursday at the Farm Bureau Building in Canyon.

The short course is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The courses will begin each night at 8 p.m. No registration or other fee will be charged and all interested in sorghum production are invited to attend.

Tuesday night, the major topics of the program will be irrigation efficiency, chemical and barnyard fertilizers and sorghum diseases.

The Thursday night session will deal with control of major insect problems such as greenbugs and mites, sorghum varieties and weed control, and program options under the current agricultural act.

Donald F. Lloyd, director of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, will present the program on the current provisions of the agricultural legislation.

Others on the program will be Leon New, extension agricultural engineer; James Valentine, extension soil scientist; Dr. Bob Barry, extension plant pathologist; Dr. Bill Clymer, area extension entomologist; and Dr. Frank Petr, area extension agronomist.

Boy Scouts Aid In Goodwill Drive

Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts in Canyon are working this week to put door knob flyers on residences to alert Canyon citizens of the pickup date for Goodwill Industries.

The information stipulates that the goods for the organization must be in bags on the porch of all homes donating by 2 p.m. Saturday for pickup.

The community wide drive has been underway all week. In addition to the Goodwill drive, the scouts continue to work in a can pickup. The scouts will collect all aluminum cans, and other cans and bottles from the Canyon area in a drive that will continue until March 26.

Canyon residents are urged to save their cans for future pickup by the scouts. All aluminum cans will be sold for recycling. The campaign has been underway for the last three weeks, with scouts working every day the weather has permitted.

The clean-up drive will be capped with a special exhibit at the Scout-O-Rama to be held March 30 at the Amarillo Civic Center.

Over 50 Texas Educators To Visit Canyon Public School Campuses

After almost two years of exhaustive self-evaluation, Canyon Public School personnel will be looking to other Texas educators next week for their opinions and comments on the quality of education in this city.

A team of 53 public school and university educators will be visiting the four Canyon campuses next week in an attempt to evaluate the school program at all levels.

A massive self-evaluation study which began here in Fall, 1972 culminates this spring when the visitation committee publishes its objective evaluation of the Canyon schools.

The project of studying the school program at all levels is undertaken every ten years as required by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges, of which the CISD is a member.

The visitation committee is slated to convene at 7:30 p.m.

Monday in the Canyon Junior High School cafeteria for a dinner-orientation meet. Dr. Bascom Hayes of the University of Texas and Dr. Kenneth Laycock of West Texas State University, both of whom have served as consultants in the Canyon self-evaluation study, will serve as coordinators for the sessions.

Throughout the day on Tuesday, as well as part of Wednesday, the educators will be visiting in the classrooms of the four campuses. A school official said the team members will be talking to students, teachers and school employees in an attempt to gather data for their reports.

At 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, all Canyon public schools will be dismissed so that faculty members may meet in small groups to confer with the visiting educators, a school official said. A complete written report on the team's findings is expected to be sent to Canyon schools later this spring.

The visitation team includes educators from the Amarillo, Borger, Dalhart, Dumas, Hereford, Levelland, Pampa, Phillips, Perryton, Snyder and Tulia Independent School Districts.

Four representatives of the Paso Education Service Center, seven members of the faculty at West Texas State University, and two members of the Texas Education Agency will also comprise the team, a school official announced.

The self-evaluation program has been under the supervision of Jerry Jacobs, superintendent of Canyon Schools, and a 18-member steering committee chaired by Herman Demus, CJHS mathematics instructor.

Working under the steering committee were various major and minor committees on both the secondary and elementary levels.

Each of the four campuses will submit its own self-evaluation report, and accreditation is to be granted on a separate basis, a spokesman said.

In the past, the Canyon public schools have been among the few in the West Texas area to receive full accreditation for all its campuses, a spokesman said.

An important part of the self-evaluation findings is a compilation of commendations and recommendations made by each of the committees. The visitation committee is also expected to include in its evaluation a list of commendations and recommendations.

A definite time schedule for fulfilling recommendations made by Canyon personnel and visiting faculty, will be set later this spring, a school official said.

La Raza Unida--United 'People,' Not United 'Race,' Founder Says

By ANN MELIN

A political party created out of the "frustration" of a Chicano community in South Texas now claims it offers an alternative for people of all races who are "fed up with injustice and corruption in their government."

So says Jose Gutierrez, founder of the fledgling political party, La Raza Unida. Gutierrez was featured in a recent lecture at West Texas State University presented in conjunction with Chicano Awareness Week.

In an interview, Gutierrez said he knew "all too well of the racist connotations" linked with La Raza Unida. "To most Texans, to most Americans, we're just 'that Mexican party,'" he said wryly.

Although stigmatized by its close identity with a single ethnic group, La Raza Unida has something going for it that no other party has right now, its founder says.

The pristine quality of the party, its very "newness and inexperience" may be its strongest selling point to national and state voters dismayed by the "stagnant pool of corruption" that runs through the country's major political parties, Gutierrez said.

Sloughing off its racist connotation and showcasing its freshness have therefore become the two main thrusts of La Raza Unida, as it attempts to take its message to the people, Gutierrez says.

Founded January 17, 1970, La Raza Unida's short history reads like a success story only rivalled by the personal history of its founder.

The party was formed when a group of about 200 Mexican-Americans, mostly migrant laborers, met in Crystal City, Texas and decided to make an attempt to strengthen their voice in the affairs of that city, its founder says.

The idea of a party to represent their interests was Gutierrez'. "La Raza Unida was an avenue to vent my frustrations," he said.

The first organizational meeting was attended by workers, housewives and students, and as a result, a party was formed to represent their interests. La Raza Unida ran candidates the same year in a variety of elective posts in three counties. By April, 1970, 15 of the 16 La Raza candidates were voted into office.

"To win in these counties was initially our only goal. I never dreamed that the momentum of the party would be great enough to carry us to the state and national level," Gutierrez said. In 1972, La Raza went statewide, picking up the 200,000 votes required to make it a major political party in the state. On the national scene, La Raza Unida now has elected officials serving in various posts in 23 states in the union, Gutierrez says.

Meet On Metro At Noon Today

Representatives of Canyon and Randall County will travel to Amarillo at noon today to meet with representatives from Amarillo and Potter County on the future of the Metro Intelligence Unit.

Law enforcement officials from the four governmental units are also expected to be on hand for the joint meeting at the Amarillo Club.

Sources close to the situation have told The News that a vast remodeling of the Metro squad is in the offing and will be eyed at today's meeting.

The Metro squad board of governors several months ago issued a long list of resolutions they asked be followed in governing the board's future.

"Sissy Farenthold's power has eroded tremendously all over the state. She will lose to Briscoe in the primary. Then it will be Briscoe and Muniz, and voters won't be having to choose between the lesser of two evils in this race. They'll be choosing between good and evil."

La Raza will also be striving to put its candidates in local and state political offices throughout the country. The six crucial state representative races La Raza is running in Texas are those in Crystal City, Kingsville, Corpus Christi, San Antonio, Austin and Uvalde, Gutierrez says.

The only way Gutierrez says his party has a chance to attract more voters is by taking its message to the people.

"That's why Muniz and I agreed to come here to WTSU on our own expense. We want people to see us in person, to see who and what they are voting for — not a Madison Avenue, pre-packaged image of what political hacks think the great mass of people want to see."

"We don't think of ourselves as just a political party, committed only to winning the next election. May I quote a slogan to show what we're here for? 'La Raza Unida — committed to the next generation.' I think that says it all."

The La Raza founder worked his way through school, he says, and was variously employed as a dishwasher, janitor, paper-grader, meter-reader, research assistant and political worker.

His rise from a migrant worker to founder and national chairman of a major state political party, he attributes to "just having more anger, more adrenalin in my system than a lot of people."

The party's goals range from multi-lingual education to national pre-paid health in-

George Dowlen told commissioners he had talked earlier in the day with a bond attorney in Dallas about the legality of construction of a $300,000 south Amarillo courthouse annex.

An Amarillo television station claimed last week that a Texas statute limited the amount which could be spent on an annex to a maximum of $200,000.

Dowlen said the bond attorney said the statute the television station referred to does not apply to the construction of an annex in South Amarillo.

Three attorney general's opinions on the subject are due to arrive this week in the District Attorney's office from the bond attorney.

Following the commissioners' court meeting, Dowlen expressed caution on the issue. He noted again that he is unsure whether the statute applies or does not apply.

Commissioners are planning to build a $300,000 structure in South Amarillo.

Commissioners also took a tough stand on acceptance of a plat for a Plantation Farms subdivision south of Amarillo after Roy L. Hudson told them the developers have not yet decided what to do with the roads in the addition.

Commissioners pointed out their requirements for a curbed and guttered street in the subdivision if the county is to maintain the streets.

They declined to accept the plat until drainage information and information on street construction are presented.

Commissioners adopted a resolution commending Dr. Dudley Moore, county health officer, for his work during the past year. Moore has been reappointed county health officer for next year.

They also discussed the possibility of hiring an assistant county agent to work with primarily urban children. They approved the hiring for a two-year period.

Bill Grisham, district extension agent, told commissioners he will now seek state and federal funding for a large portion of the assistant agent's salary.

the city.

Director Weldon Trice said many persons seeking to establish new businesses in Canyon are turned away due to a lack of retail facilities.

He cited the example of a man interested in putting an appliance repair shop in Canyon but who was unable to find a location for the business.

Director Larry Hooper said a primary thrust of the directors' efforts should go toward seeking new residents.

"We have more building going on now here than ever before in the history of Canyon," he said.

Hooper advocated the idea that Canyon promote itself as a "bedroom community."

He said the chamber should seek new residents who work in Amarillo but who could live in Canyon and commute.

"If you look at Friona, Hereford, Dalhart, Dimmitt and some other towns, they've done exceptionally well," Brown said. "Those towns don't begin to have half the potential we have here. All we need to do is promote."

Directors agreed to ask an ad agency for preliminary plans for a promotion before beginning a fund-raising campaign for the project.

Deputies said Kotrous refused to show identification and refused to leave the campus.

Kotrous pleaded innocent Monday in county court to a charge of resisting arrest and his bond was set at $500.

He pleaded innocent to a charge of criminal trespass in justice of the peace court and his bond was set at $100.

Petitioners call for city commissioners to halt action to construct a $1.2 million city hall complex until a vote of the electorate can be called.

Reaction of commissioners to the petition remains to be seen. City Attorney Elton Cox has gone on record declaring the petition is probably not a legal instrument.

Petitioners term the petition an "initiative" allowable under the city home rule charter. But, Cox said the petition is not an initiative.

Tracksters Headed For Arlington Meet

West Texas State University's track squad, which suffered through a third place finish last week in a three-way meet at Portales, N.M., will tackle an even tougher field Saturday in Arlington.

Coach Bob Kitchens' Buffaloes won only a pair of first places in taking third place behind host Eastern New Mexico University and the University of Wyoming.

The third place finish at Portales came as a trio of excellent Buffalo athletes were left at home. Weightman Dennis Briggs, the high point man in last year's Missouri Valley Conference outdoor meet, stayed at home to take a Civil Service test.

Briggs' fellow weightman Marvin Self was suffering from mononucleosis and high jumper Gary Six had an injured toe on his jumping foot.

While Self will probably not be ready this week to compete, Briggs and Six will go with the team to Arlington to face a rugged seven-team field.

Other teams entered at the University of Texas at Arlington Relays are University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, Louisiana Tech, North Texas State, Northwest Louisiana and Texas Tech.

Preliminaries start at 9:45 a.m. and finals begin at 1:30 p.m.

Briggs, who has a best shot effort of 53-8 out of doors, threw 54-10 to win the Missouri Valley Conference Indoor Championships recently. He has tossed the discus 183-10 and has a 198-0 effort in the javelin.

Six has a 6-7 high jump to his credit. Self put the shot 52-10 last spring and had a 181-0 toss in the discus.

The Buffalo sprint relay team of Wayne Cure, Bert Carter, Rick McGuire and Alvis Wright won first place at Portales with a 42.4 clocking. McGuire injured his right leg during the running of the 100-yard dash and will not run on the sprint relay this week. The Pampa freshman may run on the mile relay team at Arlington.

Carter will also miss the Arlington meet with an injured leg. McGuire and Carter will be replaced on the 440-yard relay by quarter-miler Steve Nieman, a freshman from Hereford, and jumper George Fuller, a Hereford senior.

Wright captured the other Buffalo first place Saturday. The Paducah freshman ran a wind-aided 9.4 time in the 100-yard dash. Cure was fourth with a 9.6 time.

Canyon Boxers Due Ama. Tourney

Three Canyon boxers will compete today, Friday and Saturday in the Regional Junior Olympics in Amarillo.

They are Ted Clement, Joe Doss and Tod Nix. The boys will be coached by Tommy Sanford and Eddie Clement. They are members of the Canyon boxing club.

CHS Golfers Finish 4th

Canyon High School's golfing team finished fourth last weekend in their first golf match of the season in Clovis, N.M.

The local golfers scored 321 as a team to place behind Roswell, Roswell-Goddard and Carlsbad.

Bill Turner, a sophomore, was key to the Eagle placing. Turner came in second in the individual scoring with a 73, one over par.

Milton Shadix, a junior, scored 77, Brad Garner, a senior, hit 81, Phil Davis, a junior, hit 90, and Dewey Wilson, a sophomore, hit 92.

Individual medalist for the tournament scored a 71.

Next match for the CHS golf team will be Friday at Muleshoe.

Tough Field For Thinclads

Canyon High School thinclads will face two track meets this weekend.

The Eagles will travel to Sunray for finals in field and running events after the events were rained out last week. Running events are to begin at 4:30 p.m.

They will meet other AAA schools in a Perryton track meet on Saturday.

WT Netters Vie In Tourney Saturday

West Texas State University will seek its fourth consecutive championship Friday and Saturday in the West Texas State Team Tennis Tournament.

The tournament, which will feature a standout collegiate match in the West Texas State Activities Center at 4 p.m. Friday, is one of the better balanced events in the four-year history of the tourney.

Oklahoma State University, which has one of the nation's top 10-ranked individual players in collegiate ranks, will rank as co-favorite with West Texas for the team championship.

HAPPY, TOO, TO Britt Foster, who ages a year this Saturday the 16th. The soon-to-be-eight young man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Foster.

INCONGRUITY OF LIFE? Sure sign of the change of seasons? Seems that right after Christmas, lots of once-energetic souls were creeping along, moaning and groaning. Exercising, to rid oneself of unwanted, unwelcome poundage, was the culprit at that time. Well, spring has almost sprung, and many of these once-upon-a-time dogooders find themselves again creeping, moaning and groaning along. This time around, it would seem that early but ambitious excursions into the field of yardwork are to blame. Take pity.

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall. Troyce 352-6053

Don't buy insurance. Buy a company.

We don't have factories or assembly lines, but buying insurance is exactly like buying a product. It's not a bit better than the company behind it.

Now we know for a fact that our "Wings to your Future" program offers benefits that no other college insurance program can touch. And since we're behind it, we'd like for you to know who "we" are.

We're Pierce National Life. An old-line legal reserve company that got started in 1929 and has been going and growing ever since. From coast to coast. Our home office is at 3307 Wilshire Boulevard in Los Angeles.

We're a big company. But that's not important. What is important is how we got that way. We did it through service. The kind of service your campus representative provides. And the kind of conscientious service that people in our home office have always provided.

And we did it by offering policy features that nobody else offered. Our College Insurance Program is full of them. That's why it's worth your knowing about. But first, we wanted you to know about us. Because we're behind it all.

HAPPY NEWS

Fire Department Volleyball Set

By MARY NEAL HENRY
THE HAPPY VOLUNTEER Fire Department will host their annual Volleyball Tournament in the Happy High School Gym this weekend. Games begin at five o'clock each evening. This is earlier than usual because they have more teams entered than ever before. . . ten men's teams and ten women's teams. These are all local people. Admission is so small, you can afford to bring the whole family. There will be plenty of laughs — at least there always has been in the past. You laugh with these Happy players not at them.

A CONCESSION STAND will also be open and "manned" by the Happy Fire Department and their auxiliary. They always serve homemade goodies. That is this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, March 14th, 15th, and 16th. See you there!

ONE DOLLAR FROM any Fire Department member will buy you a chance on THREE items, a trash masher, a pair of boots and a clock-radio. You do not have to be present to win.

FOUR STATE COWBELLE officers traveled to Pampa on Tuesday morning, March 6th, to attend the Brunch and Style Show for CowBelles of the area and the women attending the Top O' Texas Hereford Breeders Association. These were State President, Mrs. Tom Henry; First Vice President, Mrs. Robert Allen of Tulsa; Treasurer, Mrs. George Burnett of Abilene; and Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Wendell Sims of Happy.

MRS. BILL (DOROTHY) Frost of White Deer was one of the models of the fashions. Mrs. Lloyd Edward (Linda) Littlefield was also one. I also visited with Frankie Smith of McLean and Mauna Cleek of Panhandle. Ruth Sims visited with some of her relatives and relatives of Vesper's. I apologize for not having the lady's name.

FOSTER HARMAN is the lone candidate for Mayor of Happy in the coming election. Incumbent Bob Pulsipher has filed for the city commission. Jackie Pyle and Reggie Johnson have also filed for the city commission.

FIVE HAVE FILED for the school board of Happy Independent School District. George Tiley and Tom Henry had filed by Tuesday morning of last week. Later, but I don't know in what order, incumbent George White, S.A. Hodges and Lavenna Jackson also filed.

THE SUGGESTION HAS been made to me that the candidates have a community meeting at which they would answer questions asked by the public. Suite me! Have at it.

HAPPY SCHOOL TIME changed back to ordinary time this week. This was Amarillo College Spring Vacation and I wouldn't have had to get up that extra hour this one week, but that is okay. I might as well get up and get with it. I did appreciate the "reprieve" we were given.

FOUR STATE COWBELLE officers, President Mrs. Tom Henry, Second Vice President Mrs. Melton McGehee, Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Wendell Sims and Treasurer Mrs. George Burnett traveled to Wichita Falls on Friday morning, March 8th. They left at five o'clock in order to make the ten o'clock meeting. Each gave information to about fifty attending the organizational meeting at the Texas Electric Building. These officers were elected: President, Mrs. Neil Collier; First Vice President, Jody Parkey; Second Vice President, Kay Wellington; Third Vice President, Barbara Crumpler; Secretary, Mary Gage; Corresponding Secretary, Katherine Hastings; Parliamentarian, Kathy Graham; and Historian, Mrs. Nat Fleming. This group set the regular meeting date and really got organized. Mrs. Nat Fleming's husband was in Amarillo announcing the WTSU rodeo.

WE WERE INTERVIEWED for KFDX (Channel 6) Television's six o'clock evening news. Several newsmen and a newswoman were present for the meeting. One banker and his secretary were also present. That area had good publicity and were bursting with enthusiasm.

WE WERE THE guests of Mrs. Neil Collier for lunch at the beautiful Wichita Club and we ate BEEF.

AT TWO O'CLOCK in the afternoon we were in Henrietta to help Clay County organize. About fifteen CowBelles were present at this meeting. Mrs. Lou Parker was elected their organizational president. They planned a meeting to be held very soon to elect their other new officers. Mrs. Parker, herself, was from Byars. We met the daughter of Marion Hodgson, who compiled our cookbook. Small world.

ON THE RETURN trip home, we drove through blinding rain for several miles. It was such an extraordinary sight, that we didn't even mind. We enjoyed it. Ditches were running full and we were just hoping that it would last all the way home. It didn't. However, our showers on Friday and Saturday and early Sunday morning totalled about an inch and a half out this way.

MR. AND MRS. M.A. Wineblood, formerly of Ft. Worth, have moved into the Mahler home near Wayside. Mr. Wineblood who now plans to farm, was an employee of General Dynamics. He is Mrs. Bob Grigsby's son. Welcome to the community!

THE HOMER FERGUSONS have been visiting in Happy. Homer and Bob Johnson were doing quite a bit of reminiscing in the Corner Drug last week.

DON AND MARY Ann Magness and their Debbie and J.T. Henry attended the Tri-State High School Rodeo in Gruver on Friday.

WINNIE BRYAN IS hospitalized in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Winnie has a kidney ailment.

GWYNN TUCEK WAS hostess to the Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club on Thursday morning. She served coffee, spiced tea, brownies and cookies to Helen Bryan and Rowdy, Barbara Danner, Betty Miller, Jo Hand, Lou Dougherty, Traverne Vermeire, Mary Wilhelm and Teresa and Lisa, Shirley Williams, Hermion McNeill, Gwynn Tucek and Melissa, Mary Neal Henry, and a guest, Rita Tucek and her children. Helen Bryan called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered with "What happened the last time I tried to be a plumber?" (I could really elaborate on the stories that were told).

THE HOME DEMONSTRATION Club planned to eat lunch in Canyon and attend the Credit Experience in Canyon on March 18th.

THESE OFFICERS WERE elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Weldon Tucek; Vice President, Mrs. Robert Williams; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Ken Danner; Reporter, Mrs. John Miller; and Council Delegate, Mrs. Roy Bryan. Woman of the Year was elected. Mrs. Weldon Tucek received that honor. She will be honored at a tea later, given by Randall County at which all the Randall County Women of the Year of home demonstration clubs will be honored.

A CAKE DEMONSTRATION was given by Gwynn Tucek. Rita Tucek's name was drawn when the cake was given away. Everyone tried their hand at making a flower — or reasonable facsimile. Shirley Williams and I made a daisy. We made it and then decided what it looked most like.

SWISHER COUNTY 4-H Girls participated in their first home economics judging on Saturday at the Happy Jaycee Hall. Happy Jaycee-Ettes sponsored the occasion. Twenty-four entered the judging — some from Amarillo. The classes consisted of materials and pattern for a specific garment; peanut butter; sheets (linens); toilet tissue; hamburger meat; dresses (ready made) to fit a certain figure type; carpeting for a specific purpose, and menus. Reasons were given for the class of peanut butter and the ready made garments.

I LISTENED TO the reasons for peanut butter. They were most interesting. Some of the girls did exceptionally well for the first time to ever judge and give reasons. Those who had judged livestock knew the procedure for judging and giving reasons and did very well. Joy Freeman, Della Venhaus, and Jeanne Johnson also listened to reasons.

WOODEN PLAQUES SHAPED as four leaf clovers of walnut wood and inscribed "Decision Making, 1974, Outstanding Senior" (and one for Outstanding Junior) were presented to top winners of each division. These were Brenda Mote for the senior division and Laura Fellers for the junior division. Certificates inscribed "Second Place Over All Award" were presented to Deanna Finck in the senior division and Debbie Parker in the junior division.

BLUE RIBBONS WERE presented to Brenda Mote, Darlene Dixon, Nancy Keim, Denise Reed, Lisa Payne, Zane Stark, Mary Jo Elkins, Deanna Finck, and Terry White and a red ribbon to Belinda White in the senior division.

IN THE JUNIOR division, these received blue ribbons: Laura Fellers, Jo Ann Flores, Julie McClurg, Nancy Woods, Kim Crooks, Dana Reed, Debbie Parker, Carla Venhaus, Denise Thompson, Fara Moore, and Cynthia Womack received red ribbons.

HAPPY JAYCEE-ETTES PROVIDED the plaques and the certificates and ribbons. They also tabulated scores and listened to and judged the reasons given. Refreshments of coffee and soft drinks were served. Dottie and Dick Foster made and finished the wooden plaques and Gay Fellers lettered them. They were most unusual and pretty.

BOB ROBINSON'S FIANCEE, Sharon Hagans, was honored with a bridal shower on Saturday afternoon, March 9th, in the Everett Culp home. Myra Nell, Sharen, Mrs. Preston Hagans, and Dr. G.L. (Annie Bee) Robinson greeted guests. Each wore a corsage of assorted white flowers with a touch of green. Jan Irlbeck and Willa Jane McDonald registered guests. Palisades Palaver

By MILDRED TURNER
WE ARE SO very grateful for the lovely rain received last weekend, followed by such beautiful weather. Sure brought everyone outside, some digging, gardening, or flower beds, the Baileys and the Serights plowing lawns, the youngsters hiking, biking or playing ball, D. L. Brackeen and Jarriel Moon on bikes, the birds all singing and the bees buzzing. Sure enough, my apricots, in full bloom, were just covered with bees. I told Garland to follow them and we could get us some honey. He didn't.

GARLAND IS HOME now, since last Saturday. Sure hoping to keep him busy on a lawn mower, hoe, shovel, watering, stacking wood, digging so if you see him standing in the garden with out-stretched arms you will know he has run out of chores and is playing scare crow for me. I ENJOYED "NO, No Nanette" with Floyd and Peggy Oliver, whose daughter, Brenda, was in the chorus. Several have commented that they enjoyed "Oklahoma" more last year. I did not get to see Oklahoma, but I sure wanted to.

SARA, JOHN, AND little Heath have already moved on the ninety one acre stretch they bought recently. They have grass, lumber, two little brooks and a log house. I have not seen it yet but they are sure excited, gathering up farm tools, books on organic gardening, bees, cattle, and ticks. I told John to build a tree house first and use it for a guest house (a large split level with lots of room!) They are renting until they can build them a place. John said he would run the truck hauling the lumber and Sara would work the mule. They plan on having all sorts of animals and fowl. I mentioned I'd like to get some bees and John came dashing down stairs with a book on caring and keeping bees. The nearest town is Tenaha (Texas). I think a fair city nearby is Longview. They are right on the border line.

BELVA (No. 4) AND J.T. are moving also. J.T. is being transferred also which is a help because they had planned on moving to the Houston area anyway so he could finish his thirty hours required for his masters degree. We have been spending as much time together as possible. In fact Belva has been here about two weeks except to run to Pampa over the weekend to be with J.T. and the Winters. Come by and say "hello" before Saturday.

I HAVE NOTICED several garden spots being prepared, and Gene Webb, Beverly Strecker and Ernest Jones already have their onions out. Ernest put out 1200 plants (or sets?) just before the rain. Several have said they are enlarging their garden plots.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Rick Jackson on March 15. Missed Sherri's on March 2.

THE RICHARD JACKSONS and the Robert Jacksons were happy to be in the Palisades last weekend. They have been building a 13.5 million dollar civic center in Lubbock.

I HAD A pleasant visit with Vera Griffin in her home this week. I admire Vera a lot in her busy life as wife, mother, Sunday School teacher for the teenage girls, and nurse for her invalid mother, Mrs. Williams. I want to dedicate the following poem to Mrs. Williams. There were some times in my life that I was confinied to bed and I will remember those days which I think have affected my whole life. Mrs. Williams is a sparkling little lady. Go by and see her, you will love her.

I Needed the Quiet
I needed the quiet and He drew me aside;
Into the shadows where we could confide,
Away from the bustle where all the day long,
I hurried and worried when active and strong.

I needed the quiet, though at first I rebelled,
But gently, so gently my cross He upheld;
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things,
Though weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.

He loved me so greatly; as He drew me away.

I needed the quiet, no prison my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead;
A place to grow richer, in Jesus to hide,
I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.

THE ONE YEAR anniversary for the Palisades church had a precious service Sunday morning. Gary Strecker led the worship. Mrs. Jimmy Vaughn (Rhonda) sang a special song which was a beautiful testimony. She was accompanied by Beverly Strecker on the piano. Bro. Gerald Seright, pastor, brought the message. To me, there is something wonderful about a Sunday morning service. Whether the church is large, medium or small as we gather together on Sunday morning, we realize that people everywhere are gathering for the same purpose and there is such a feeling of love and unity. In a little country church (in the wild woods) lifting our voices with our neighbors makes it very, very special. I pray we can always have this privilege. The service was followed by a time of fellowship and a lovely dinner.

RICK JACKSON AND Nancy Carter were married on March 2 in the Paramount Baptist Chapel. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Carter Jr. of 3502 Linda, Amarillo. Rick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jackson of the Palisades. Nancy attended WTSU last year and Rick has completed his apprenticeship in carpentry. Gayle Prichard of Amarillo was bride's attendant; Kenny Tate of Palisades was best man. Sherri Jackson was bridesmaid and Roy Schidanz of Canyon was groomsmen. They honeymooned in Red River and are living in Lubbock where Rick is currently employed with Page and Wirt Construction Company.

JEAN JONES' BROTHER, who had a stroke and heart attack in January, is back in the hospital in Little Rock, Ark. Our best wishes and prayers for him.

I WAS INVITED to the Palisades board meeting Monday night at the Paul Flemings. They have a marvelous breathtaking view (and so is the hill if you are walking!) There was a lot of consideration given the questionnaires which had been returned and good response. If you have not mailed yours in, go ahead. Some of the main goals for this year are: the gate, with security guards (call a board member and help) roads, bridges, fixing up, cleaning up, painting, sawing dead wood and cleaning the creek and banks. Since our funds are low, a few money making projects are planned. On the Saturday after Easter there will be an old-fashioned "Country Fair" with all sorts of wares sold: baked goods, home canned foods, art and crafts of all sorts, garage sale type tools, etc., etc., etc. Live entertainment and competitive games. We need each of you, both young and otherwise! Call in suggestions! I am the chairman of this fair and I do need help quick! This will be at the church with tables set up inside and out. Plan to spend the day. Proceeds go into the Bridge, Road and Improvement Fund. Help, Help! Please!

CATHY SERVED DELICIOUS brownies, cake and coffee.
